Under this agreement, MIS performs all operating functions such as marketing, underwriting, rating, policy issuance, claims, data processing, and pays all the operating expenses including, but not limited to rent, supplies, salaries, legal and claim adjustment expenses. The Company directly pays for losses, premium taxes, audit fees, and various fees and assessments. Management fees are based on actual expenses incurred for services provided to the Company. The California Department of Insurance (CDI) approved this agreement on January 1, 2001. The Company paid the following fees during the examination period:

Year	Amounts

COMMENTS ON FINANCIAL STATEMENT ITEMS

(1) Bonds, Stocks and Cash and Short-Term Investments

Effective September 3, 2003, the Company terminated its Custodial agreement, and replaced it with a new Custodial agreement. The new agreement is between the Company and BNY Western Trust Company. The Company failed to submit this agreement to the California Department of Insurance (CDI) for review and approval under California Insurance Code (CIC) Section 1104.9. It is recommended that the Company submit this agreement to the CDI for review and approval pursuant to CIC Section 1104.9.

(2) Losses and Loss Adjustment Expenses

The December 31, 2003 for loss and loss adjustment expense reserves were evaluated by a Casualty Actuary from the California Department of Insurance. Based on the analysis performed, the Company's reserve for loss and loss adjustment expense reserves as of December 31, 2003 were deemed reasonable.

(3) Taxes, Licenses and Fees

The CDI made a determination that starting with tax year 1998, the Company began to use premiums received instead of premiums written as the premium tax base. The CDI proposed deficiency assessment for each year was $23,411, $63,807 and $76,911 for years 1998, 1999 and 2000, respectively. The Company filed a Petition for Redetermination while it continued to use premium received instead of premiums written as the premium tax base. The CDI has sent the California State Board of Equalization the above information for further processing. The Company is contesting the CDI proposed deficiency assessments. A hearing on this matter is currently pending.
